WHEREAS, Transportation is the lifeline that ties together [illegible], [illegible], and the lifeline that determines [illegible] total economy; and,

WHEREAS, The facilities and practices that comprise our transportation [illegible] vitally affect not only our economy, but the environmental and social fiber of our total existence; and,

WHEREAS, Transportation in all of its forms is a major user of our energy and other natural resources, as well as a major contributor to the development of those resources:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, RICHARD F. KNEIP, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the period of May 14-20, 1978, as in South Dakota, and call upon all citizens of this State to observe the period with special concern for safe, economical use of our transportation facilities; and call upon all providers and planners of modern transportation to take special care and exercise respect for the State's social, environmental, and economic well-being.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affix the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this [illegible] Day of April, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Seventy-Eight.

RFK

RICHARD F. KNEIP, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

LORNA B. HERSETH, SECRETARY OF STATE
